

CHINA STUDIES RESEARCH TRAVEL GRANTS

While the highest priority is to support research and instructional development in the field of Chinese Studies, we also wish to assist faculty in non-China related fields to expand their connections with Chinese colleagues and to internationalize their research and teaching.

The following activities, listed in descending order of priority, will be considered:

1. Projects based on a concrete, clearly defined research agenda, with Chinese institutional support secured.
2. Exploratory research where potential collaborators are clearly identified, but where specific topics have yet to be decided.
3. Other activities with the clear potential to further the institutional interests of the University or Chinese Studies in general.
4. Conference attendance, presenting the results of research or lecturing in one's field.

Deadline: Monday, October 31, 2011.

Please print out and complete the application below, and submit four (4) copies of the completed paper form. Do not submit applications electronically.

Completed applications should be sent to Katherine Carlitz, c/o Asian Studies Center, 4400 WWPH, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA 15260

Four copies of applicant's Curriculum Vitae must accompany each grant application, and a 1-2 page report must be submitted upon completion of the project.
