

Graduate Student Pre-Dissertation and Conference
Participation Grants for China or Korea Studies

(Japan has separate application instructions, listed under Japan scholarships)

PRE-DISSERTATION GRANT:

This grant provides partial support for travel related to pre-dissertation research in and about China or Korea. Priority is given to first-time applicants who are in their early stage of dissertation research.

For China and Korea Studies: The maximum amount is $600 for international travel and $300 for domestic travel.

Application procedure:

Application materials should ALL be submitted online to Elizabeth Greene at egreene@pitt.edu, and should include:

* Identifying information: Student Name, PeopleSoft ID number, School and Department, applicant's Home and Campus addresses, name and e-mail of Advisor.

*A proposal to the China or Korea Council, addressing the topic of research, specific goals of the trip, pre-trip preparation, and other evidence justifying the trip. Please tell us if you have received this award before.

* A brief letter of support from the applicant's main academic advisor. Please remind your faculty advisor to submit the recommendation on-line to: egreene@ucis.pitt.edu

*A detailed budget listing costs of travel, lodging, meals, supplies, and incidentals (such as museum fees if applicable, or the like).

Deadlines:

For China: OCTOBER 30 and JANUARY 31

For Korea Studies: Rolling deadlines

GRADUATE STUDENT CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION GRANT:

This grant provides partial support for graduate students to travel to a professional conference and present a paper. Priority is given to first time applicants.

For China and Korea Studies: The maximum amount is $600 for international travel and $300 for domestic travel.

Application should be submitted BEFORE the conference takes place.

Application procedure:

Application materials should ALL be submitted online to Elizabeth Greene at egreene@pitt.edu and should include:

* Identifying information: Student Name, PeopleSoft ID number, School and Department, applicant's Home and Campus addresses, name and e-mail of Advisor.

* A cover letter that briefly explains (a) the name of the conference you will attend, (b) paper title, panel title, and a brief abstract of the paper, (c ) evidence of conference paper acceptance (if this is not available on-line, please give Elizabeth Greene a photocopy) .

* A brief letter of support from the applicant's main academic advisor. Please remind your faculty advisor to submit the recommendation on-line to: egreene@ucis.pitt.edu.

*A detailed budget listing costs of travel, lodging, meals, conference registration, and incidentals (photocopying your paper, postage, and the like).

Deadlines:

For China Studies: OCTOBER 30, JANUARY 31, and APRIL 1

For Korea Studies: Rolling deadline