To Whom It May Concern:

The Center for Latin American Studies (CLAS) is pleased to announce a Summer Library Research Fellowship competition. The fellowship will provide a stipend for conducting research at the University of Pittsburgh utilizing the renowned Eduardo Lozano Latin American Library Collection.

Several grants will be awarded ranging from $250 to $2,500.

Enclosed is a detailed description of the Fellowship and application form. The application form should be accompanied by: (1) budget of projected expenses; (2) curriculum vitae; and (3) two-three page research proposal. All materials should be submitted together no later than April 24, 2009 to the attention of Luis Bravo at the above address.

Please feel free to share this information with other faculty in your school.

Thank you.
