CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

Established in 1964, the Center for Latin American Studies (CLAS) at the University of Pittsburgh develops and coordinates resources on Latin America and the Caribbean that contribute to training experts on the region through high quality programs of graduate and undergraduate education. The Center also provides information and assistance to the business and professional communities and the general public. For more information go to www.ucis.pitt.edu/clas

El Centro de Estudios Latinoamericanos (CLAS), establecido en la Universidad de Pittsburgh en 1964, desarrolla y coordina recursos sobre América Latina y el Caribe. Dichos recursos contribuyen al entrenamiento de expertos regionales por medio de programas de alta calidad a nivel de pre-grado (bachiller) y posgrado. Al mismo tiempo, el centro provee asistencia e información a las comunidades profesionales y de negocios, y al público en general.

Panoramas provides a web-based venue for thoughtful dialogue on Latin American and Caribbean issues. By enabling a voice for scholars, students, policy makers and others to engage in constructive commentary on relevant current and historical topics, the forum also serves as an academic resource to worldwide educational audiences. Housed at the Center for Latin American Studies at the University of Pittsburgh, and maintained by CLAS faculty, students and alumni, Panoramas strives to be at the forefront of scholarly analysis of affairs in the Latin American region.
