CLAS/PITT EVENTS

Panoramas Newsletter—Center for Latin American Studies at Pitt

Panoramas is a forum dedicated to spreading innovative research and ideas about Latin America to an academically oriented audience.

Our website <http://www.panoramas.pitt.edu> receives more than 5,000 unique visits from Latin Americanists from all the world. Hosted by the Center for Latin American Studies (CLAS) at the University of Pittsburgh, Panoramas offers a unique opportunity to Latin Americanists from any discipline to briefly present their research to a cross-disciplinary audience. We accept summaries of books and papers recently published in academic journals and columns of opinions in English, Spanish, and Portuguese. If you are interested in contributing to Panoramas, please contact Coordinating Editor Ignacio Arana Araya at submissions.panoramas@gmail.com, or simply follow the submissions tab on our homepage to create an account.

A Symposium: "Mere" Comparisons: Theory and Methodology from a Global Perspective

Lectures by

Joseph Slaughter (Associate Professor of English and Comparative Literature, Columbia University)

Response by Molly Warsh (Assistant Professor of History, University of Pittsburgh)

Date: Thursday, February 5, 2015

Time: 4:00 p.m.

Location: Humanities Center, 602 Cathedral of Learning

Natalie Melas (Associate Professor of Comparative Literatures, Cornell University)

Response by Diego Holstein (Assistant Professor of History, University of Pittsburgh)

Date: Thursday, February 5, 2015

Time: 5:45 p.m.

Location: Humanities Center, 602 Cathedral of Learning

Hosted by the Humanities Center at the University of Pittsburgh.

The “global turn” of recent years has brought to the fore theoretical and methodological questions about the implications of working across regions in both the humanities and social sciences. A broadening of scope necessitates comparison, and comparison—as has been amply argued—is never ideologically neutral. These questions are germane not just to fields centered on comparison, as in Comparative Literature, but also to the wide range of disciplines that have sought to respond to critical models that foreground the “global” (particularly in response to globalization), “world” (whether world systems or World Literature), or “transnational” (as in Paul Gilroy’s model of the Black Atlantic, Indian Ocean Studies, and transoceanic frameworks). In literary studies, scholars generally take one of two approaches: the interrogation of comparison itself or the examination of the comparability of two or more regions or bodies of literature. This symposium will juxtapose these two strategies in order to interrogate the philosophical underpinnings of comparison as well as explore its utility when working across the often-marginalized areas of the globe.

Symposium organizers: Magalí Armillas-Tyseyra (Humanities Center 2014-2015 Early Career Fellow) and Gayle Rogers (Associate Professor of English)

For more information contact: humctr@pitt.edu

This symposium is co-sponsored by the Center for Latin American Studies, boundary 2, the World History Center, the Global Studies Center, the Graduate Program for Cultural Studies, and the departments of Hispanic Languages & Literatures, French & Italian Languages & Literatures, History of Art & Architecture, History, and English.

Ghosts of Amistad: In the Footsteps of the Rebels--Film screening

Date: Monday, February 9, 2015

Time: 8:30 pm

Location: Assembly Room, William Pitt Union

University of Pittsburgh Oakland campus

For more information: Marcus Rediker, red1@pitt.edu

The documentary film Ghosts of Amistad: In the Footsteps of the Rebels, directed by Tony Buba and produced by Professor Marcus Rediker, is based on Rediker’s book, The Amistad Rebellion: At Atlantic Odyssey of Slavery and Freedom (Penguin, 2012). Professor Rediker will introduce the film and take questions afterwards. This event is part of the University of Pittsburgh’s Black History Month celebration. The screening is free and open to the public.

The film chronicles a trip to Sierra Leone in 2013 to visit the home villages of the people who seized the slave schooner Amistad in 1839, to interview elders about local memory of the case, and to search for the long-lost ruins of Lomboko, the slave trading factory where their cruel transatlantic voyage began. The film uses the knowledge of villagers, fishermen, and truck drivers to recover a lost history from below in the struggle against slavery.

DOG IN THE MANGER by Lope De Vega and David Johnston; directed by Dennis Schebetta

Date: February 12 – 22, 2015

Tuesdays through Saturdays at 8PM

Sunday Matinees at 2PM

Location: Charity Randall Theatre, 4200 Fifth Ave

For more information: Call 412-624-PLAY or visit www.play.pitt.edu

In this sexy new translation of a Spanish golden age classic, Lope de Vega's romantic comedy of class and desire sizzles to life. Set in luxurious 17th century Naples, a haughty Countess, Diana, rejects her many suitors and falls in love instead with her handsome young secretary, Teodoro, who is actually in love with Diana's maid. A hilarious tug of war ensues as Diana's private struggle nearly drives Teodoro mad. Along the way, she must prevent the servants from figuring out the truth and fend off the advances of two ridiculous gentleman suitors. Will the Countess be able to scheme a plot to end all plots in order to get her man (probably, this is a comedy)?

Director Dennis Schebetta is a writer, director, actor and teacher of film and theatre. He won the Ellen Weiss Kander Award for the Steeltown Film Factory Competition for his script MY DATE WITH ADAM. The film premiered at the 2013 Three Rivers Film Festival and has since been an official selection of the Boston Sci-Fi Film Festival, The Phoenix International Film Festival, Sci-Fi London Film Festival, 4th Annual Robot Film Festival and won Best Comedy Short at the 2014 High Desert International Film Festival.

Graduate Assistant Director Julian Stetkevych is a Teaching Fellow and M.F.A. candidate in Performance Pedagogy. He was an actor and teaching artist in New York City for 8 years, including private audition coaching and teaching with the Hudson Valley Shakespeare Festival.

For more information, photos, or to speak with the artists, please contact Josh Storey at 412-624-0933 or jstorey@pitt.edu.

STUDY ABROAD OPPORTUNITIES

Study Abroad Program — History in Guatemala

History and Ethnohistory in Guatemala; June 23-August 3, 2015

6 credits in History (transfer credits available)

$2,275 program fee (includes airfare) + six credits tuition

The History department and the Global Education Office at Virginia Commonwealth University are pleased to offer a unique opportunity for students to study the history and ethnohistory of Guatemala. The program is based in Quetzaltenango, Guatemala and will introduce students to the complex history of Guatemala and Central America from before the Spanish Conquest up to the present, including the emergence of a mixed indigenous, African, and European descended population, the historical roots of social inequality in the region, and the legacy of guerilla activity and counter-revolutionary violence in the second half of the twentieth century. We will also focus on the way societies in different eras have recorded, written about, or conceptualized the past. This program is especially well suited for students in History, Anthropology, Art History, Political Science, International Studies, and Religious Studies. However, strongly motivated students from other disciplines, including freshmen and sophomores, are encouraged to apply.

Based in Guatemala's second largest city, Quetzaltenango, this six week program will provide students with a comprehensive overview of the history of the region, including an introduction to the ancient civilization of the pre-Columbian Maya, a historical survey of Spanish-indigenous relations in Mesoamerica from the violence of the Spanish conquest right through to the present, and the effects of U.S. policy in the region throughout the twentieth century. It will also provide students with an immersive cultural experience, replete with hands-on opportunities to talk with, learn from, and come to know the people of present day Guatemala. Much of our time will be based in Quetzaltenango, the cultural center of the western highlands, where students will live with local Guatemalan families and interact closely with K'iche' Mayan and Ladino (non-indigenous) scholars, townsfolk, and university students. We will also make extended trips to other areas, including the capital, Guatemala City, the colonial capital of Antigua, and the Classic Maya ruins of Copan Honduras. We will visit the famous market town of Chichicastenango and the Tzutujil and Kaqchikel villages surrounding Lake Atitlan, and we'll spend time at a coffee plantation below Santa Maria Volcano, run by ex-guerilla fighters of the ORPA/URNG

The program will be led by Dr. Maury Hutcheson, a cultural anthropologist and adjunct associate professor of Latin American history at Pace University. Dr. Hutcheson's research centers on the history of religious practices and expressive culture among the K'iche' Maya, and their creative response to nearly 500 years of Spanish missionization and cultural domination, the counter-revolutionary violence of the 1970s and '80s, and the impact of globalization in the present generation. Dr. Hutcheson has extensive experience in Guatemala, having made numerous research visits there totaling nearly four years on the ground. This will be his seventh year directing a study abroad program in Guatemala for VCU.

Chile Open Doors Program

Chile is currently undergoing a large-scale reform to its public education system, which is meant to strengthen and improve the quality of education for public schools in Chile. These reforms are targeting municipal schools in particular, with the aim of providing more specific resources and support according to schools' greatest needs. With that in mind, it is with great pleasure that we announce that the English Opens Doors Program has been granted the tremendous responsibility of carrying out the English language education component of Chile's educational reform! In other words, the English Opens Doors Program will be the entity in charge of improving and strengthening English Language Education in approximately 1,000 schools over the next three years through diverse initiatives like our Teacher Development Programs, Students Development Programs, On-line English and Methodology courses for teachers and students and, of course, the National Volunteer Center Initiative!

We are officially starting to make strides in this mission to improve public education in Chile, and increase the level of opportunities available to students who can't afford to pay for a privately funded education. Due to the fact that this new challenge requires a considerable amount of restructuring and reworking of our pre-existing protocols and procedures, the Program has made changes to our volunteer services from what we had originally published. Fortunately, for the students and alumni of your university, this means that our application deadlines for our 2015 volunteer services have also been pushed back! Please refer to our website for more information: www.centrodevoluntarios.cl.

If you have any questions, or would like to further discuss our volunteer opportunities (via e-mail, skype, or even scheduling a video conference with interested persons), please do not hesitate to contact Stephanie.hairgrove@mineduc.cl.

Study Abroad in Guatemala—Programa Internacional de Educación y Acción Social (IDEAS)

The Center for Latin American Studies at the University of Arizona invites you to participate in its renowned study abroad program in Guatemala, the International Program for Education and Social Action (IDEAS). We partner with the Association for the Advancement of the Social Sciences in Guatemala, one of Guatemala's leading intellectual centers that emphasizes the connection between research and social action (<http://avancso.org.gt/>). Classes are held in the El Sitio Cultural Center in Antigua, Guatemala (www.elsitiocultural.org/), a stunningly beautiful World Heritage town (<http://whc.unesco.org/en/list/65>), and students live with Guatemalan families in Antigua. For more information, contact IDEAS program director Gustavo Palma, at ideas@avancso.org.gt (inquiries can be in English or Spanish).

The Kings International Development Institute at King's College London—MSc Latin American Development

This programme integrates a thorough grounding in development theory with the in-depth study of Latin America. This region, known for its historically high levels of inequality and its recurrent political and economic crises, has been enjoying a period of democratic consolidation, economic growth, and falling inequality. Through exploring the contemporary and historical experiences of this region, students will develop an understanding of the deep roots of social change and the background to current development challenges and policy debates.

The MSc Latin American Development highlights the importance of Latin America's position in the global order, as well as the relationships between countries of the region, in shaping countries' policy options and development outcomes. Drawing on the broader expertise within the King's Global Institutes, the MSc will also interrogate how experiences of emerging economies around the world illuminate the issues facing Latin America. The emphasis is on understanding the ways Latin America is trying to overcome long-standing barriers to stability and prosperity.

The focus on integrating theory, data, and history will foster students' critical and analytical skills as they examine how Latin American countries are promoting growth and economic, social and political development in new and often innovative ways.

2015 Graduate Student Conference: “Subestimados: Prospects and Challenges of Social Mobility”

Dates: March 6-7, 2015

Location: Bloomington, Indiana

For more information: clacs@indiana.edu or visit:

<http://www.indiana.edu/~clacs/events/conferences/graduate-student-conference/>

This year's conference encourages participants to expose past and present challenges that have influenced the emergence of social groups that are underestimated, undervalued, and pushed to the margins in Latin American and Caribbean societies. The prospects of social mobility for these people are limited by diverse global, national, regional, and local factors, and scholarly attention from across disciplines has the ability to better conceptualize the interrelatedness of these factors. With this theme in mind, we invite scholars from diverse academic and professional backgrounds to submit abstracts exploring the complex experiences of subestimados fighting to overcome their challenging circumstances.

The Ohio State University Congress on Hispanic and Lusophone Linguistics (OSUCHiLL)

Dates: April 10-11, 2015 (new dates)

JOURNALS/CALL FOR PAPERS

Lucero* 2014-2015

The theme of the 2014-15 issue of Lucero arises from the publication's recent restructuring and reinvigoration. As we expand our publication to include works from a variety of critical, creative, and emerging genres, we face questions of liminality, defamiliarization, and violence to traditional information systems. With these questions in mind, we invite submissions on the theme of violence and the arts. Possible subthemes include: Trauma and memory; Representations of the body; Violence and aesthetics; Violence and the State (Geopolitics of violence); Liminal spaces of violence and/or violence in liminal spaces; The creative act as violence/genre/gender play; Violence and information systems; Violence in the digital world; Colonialism; Revolution; Borders.

We welcome submissions in English, Spanish, or Portuguese on the theme of violence and the arts. Submissions can take many forms, including but not limited to visual art, critical essays, fiction, poetry, translations, videography, photography, songs or pieces of music, and new or hybrid genres.

Please email submissions for this year's publication of Lucero to lucerosubmissions@gmail.com by January 20, 2015. Submissions will undergo double-blind review, so should not contain any information that indicates the identity of their creators. Please include a separate cover sheet with the title of the work and the creator's name, email address, and institutional affiliation (if relevant).

Revista de Estudios Sociales-Universidad de los Andes

Authors should send their texts directly to the e-mail address of Revista de Estudios Sociales (res@uniandes.edu.co). Articles will be accepted between February 1 and 28, 2015

For more information: <http://res.uniandes.edu.co/page.php?c=Normas+para+los+autores>

Texts will be accepted in Spanish, Portuguese and English. For the different types of collaboration, authors must strictly adhere to the editorial guidelines and the style manual of the Revista de Estudios Sociales of Universidad de los Andes (See:

ORGANIZATIONS (check websites for updates)

WQED—WORLD Channel

As of January 1st, WQED began offering the WORLD Channel. It is filled with multicultural and global content. Purgatorio (a fresh perspective of the U.S./Mexico border experience) is part of the series America Reframed and you can find repeat airings of it this week. At the end of January, another documentary, this one set in South America will air on the WORLD Channel. It's called Gaucha Del Norte and tells the story of a Patagonian rancher.

WQED is proud to offer this service with so many programs we believe reflect the richness of our entire population. I hope you enjoy watching WORLD on WQED's sub-channel 201 (on Comcast).

The World History Center, Department of History, University of Pittsburgh

The World History Center at the University of Pittsburgh emphasizes research, teaching, and international collaboration on the global past, with attention to policies for the global future. ### Global Links

Global Links is a medical relief and development organization dedicated to promoting environmental stewardship and improving health in resource-poor communities, primarily in Latin America and the Caribbean. Our two-fold mission provides hospitals with a socially and environmentally beneficial alternative to sending hundreds of tons of still-useful surplus materials to landfills.

Hospitals and clinics in under-served communities often lack the supplies and equipment necessary to provide even basic care to their patients, resulting in needless suffering and deaths. At the same time, the US healthcare industry generates a staggering amount of medical surplus which, without intervention, is destined to pile up in our landfills.

Global Links' innovative model of recovery and reuse connects these two social problems in a way that helps to solve both, creating a "virtuous circle" that converts an environmental burden to a life-saving purpose. For information about events and programs visit: <http://www.globallinks.org/>

OLA (Observatory in Latin American—Observatorio Latino Americano)

The broad objectives of OLA are to:

- Improve academic and public understanding by observing and studying the processes of political and economic change underway in Latin America.

- Foster a public dialogue between and within the United States and Latin America about the challenges of building social democracy in a globalized world, including creating opportunities for Latin American leaders to directly express their views to audiences in the United States.
- Collaborate with Latin American institutions to further these objectives within countries across the Hemisphere by linking and mobilizing ideas and institutions.

Carnegie Endowment for International Peace

The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace is the oldest international affairs think tank in the United States and the first global think tank. For updates and information about events and topics visit: <http://carnegieendowment.org/programs/>

Council Hemispheric Affairs

Founded in 1975, the Council on Hemispheric Affairs (COHA), a nonprofit, tax-exempt independent research and information organization, was established to promote the common interests of the hemisphere, raise the visibility of regional affairs and increase the importance of the inter-American relationship, as well as encourage the formulation of rational and constructive U.S. policies towards Latin America. In 1982, COHA's board of trustees voted to expand its mandate to include monitoring Canadian/Latin American relations. Since its inception, COHA has been one of the most active and broadest-based U.S. private bodies dealing with the entire spectrum of political, economic and diplomatic issues, as well as responding to the economic and political challenges confronting the nations of this hemisphere. From its beginnings, COHA's board consisted of the leadership of some of this country's most important trade unions, professional organizations and religious groups, as well as distinguished civic and academic figures, who joined together to advance their common belief in support of representative government and pluralistic institutions throughout the hemisphere.

For more information contact: <http://www.coha.org/>

Latinamerican Press

Mission: To produce independent and reliable information and analysis about Latin America and the Caribbean with an emphasis on the problems and situations that affect the human rights of vulnerable and marginalized sectors of the population, and distribute it among individuals—and strengthen the communications skills of social leaders and leaders of opinion—groups and forums whose work has the power to contribute to the construction of more inclusive and just societies.

The Chronicle of Higher Education

The Chronicle of Higher Education is the No. 1 source of news, information, and jobs for college and university faculty members and administrators. Based in Washington, D.C., The Chronicle has more than 70 writers, editors, and international correspondents. <http://chronicle.com/section/Home/5>

World Affairs Council of Pittsburgh

The World Affairs Council of Pittsburgh is an independent, non-partisan, non-profit organization dedicated to promoting a deeper understanding of key contemporary international issues throughout Western Pennsylvania. Established in 1931, the Council is committed to informing opinion leaders and decision-makers about developments around the world as they unfold – and to educating them about the relevance of such developments to the region. The Council also has a special focus on secondary schools throughout the region, and works to give students and teachers a more nuanced understanding of the global issues of our time.

EMPLOYMENT/INTERNSHIPS/FELLOWSHIPS

Richard E. Greenleaf Visiting Library Scholar—University of New Mexico

About

The Richard E. Greenleaf Visiting Library Scholar award provides individuals the opportunity to work as visiting researchers with the University of New Mexico's Latin American library collections, one of the largest and most complete Latin or Spanish American collections in the country. Invited to apply are scholars (U.S. and international), junior faculty (U.S.) and graduate students (U.S.) who specialize in Latin America and Iberia. The award honors Dr. Richard E. Greenleaf, distinguished scholar of colonial Latin American history, and his extensive career in teaching, research, and service.

Recipients of the Richard E. Greenleaf Visiting Library Scholar award will work to promote scholarly use of the Latin American and Iberian collections, focusing on objectives with specific relevance to the UNM Library collections. Scholars will have the opportunity to present their research to faculty and students during their visit to UNM and to submit a brief report. LAII will assist awardees in identifying and networking with UNM scholars in relevant fields.

Hiring: Human Rights Investigator

About FFSC

The mission of the Fair Food Standards Council (FFSC, <http://fairfoodstandards.org>) is to monitor the development of a sustainable agricultural industry that advances both the human rights of farmworkers and the long-term interests of growers through implementation of the Fair Food Program (FFP), a unique worker-led, market-driven social responsibility program that emerged from the Coalition of Immokalee Workers' successful Campaign for Fair Food. The FFP has become the gold standard for social responsibility in US agriculture, recognized by longtime labor and human rights observers as "the best workplace monitoring program in the US" and "one of the great human rights success stories of our day."

To learn more, please see the FFSC's annual report (<http://fairfoodstandards.org/reports.html>) or the New York Times' 2014 article (<http://nyti.ms/1LaEs2>).

About the Position

Investigators conduct proactive audits of participating growers' operations, including detailed interviews of field workers, supervisors, and management. Payroll reviews are conducted, in addition to monitoring the distribution of Fair Food Premium bonus payments to workers. Investigators also receive and investigate complaints from workers through a 24-hour confidential hotline. Working in teams, and together with the Executive Director, Investigators play a key role in drafting audit reports, investigating and resolving complaints, and designing corrective action plans.

FFSC is based in Sarasota, FL, with work-related travel throughout the Southeast and Mid-Atlantic.

Salary and benefits are competitive within the non-profit sector.

Qualifications/Skills

- Fluency in Spanish or Haitian Creole;
- Strong communication and interviewing skills;
- Strong writing and documentation skills, including attention to detail;
- Ability to connect facts and discern patterns;
- Ability to interact well with people of different nationalities, gender, and education levels;
- Comfort working in rural areas, including onsite at farms (outdoors);
- Willingness to work irregular hours and "do what is necessary";
- Ability to work well as part of a team, as well as independently;
- Discipline and initiative; and
- Valid drivers' license.

To Apply

Applicants should send a resume/CV and a cover letter indicating interest in the position to Judge Laura Safer Espinoza at info@fairfoodstandards.org. The subject line of the email should read FFSC Investigator Position. Applications will be accepted until the positions are filled.

The FFSC is an equal opportunity employer committed to developing a workforce that reflects and can relate easily to the diverse populations involved in the Fair Food Program.

The Latino Family Center (LFC) Volunteer Programs and Opportunities

The Latino Family Center provides Latino families in Allegheny County with the resources and support they need to raise healthy and happy children. As part of the Allegheny County Family Support Network, the LFC offers services and support to families that are in need of aid with child development, school readiness, and parent education. In order to better serve our families, we will need the help of volunteers to participate in a variety of programs and opportunities as described below:

Volunteer Tutoring Program:

The Volunteer Tutoring Program was launched during the beginning of the 2013-2014 school year and has proven to be a great success! Tutors are paired with a student in grades K-12 who needs help with homework, or an adult who is looking for ESL or GED help. Sessions take place in the home of the student/adult, or in a public space such as a library or coffee shop. Scheduling will depend on volunteer and student availability. Consistency and punctuality are crucial to this position as students will depend on tutor to help with daily school assignments and to ensure effective learning.

Kindergarten Readiness Program:

We are currently in the process of planning and organizing a Kindergarten Readiness Program to be held on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 10:30-12pm, while adult ESL Classes are in session. Children's ages usually range from 0-5. We would appreciate the help in planning the structure and consistent execution of this new program. If you love little kids, this is the opportunity for you!

Special Events:

We frequently have events at the center such as holiday celebrations and programs that allow local organizations to come and help or educate our families on a variety of topics. In these cases, we will need volunteers to help us plan, organize, set up, facilitate, and help clean after the event. This position will vary by event and need.

Family Advocacy:

There are also opportunities at the LFC for volunteers to help out with interpretation in English and Spanish. Duties may include: translating/completing forms, accompanying families and translating at doctor's appointments, etc.

Cooking:

We are a group of staff members and LFC family members alike who loves to bond over food. If you also love to cook and are looking to challenge and apply your skills outside of your own kitchen, we invite you to help us prepare snacks and meals before meetings and events throughout the year. Multiple times or just a one-time offer, we look forward to trying out your cooking!

Center Office Help:

Every once in a while, the Center needs help with office duties! Volunteers will be asked to come in a help clean, re-organize, file, or help with the packaging of monthly newsletters in to envelopes.
