

Friedl E. Kessler Memorial Fellowship

The Kessler Fellowship

To help defray the costs of studying abroad, the European Studies Center (ESC) offers the Kessler Fellowship for study or research in Germany. The award is offered to a University of Pittsburgh Oakland Campus undergraduate student in the amount of $1,000 on a competitive basis.

Eligibility Requirements

Potential applicants must meet the following requirements for application:

- Must be studying German
- Must have at least a 3.0 GPA
- Must be enrolled in either the West European Studies, Transatlantic or European Union Studies Undergraduate Certificate Programs. Students in the Related Concentration in European & Eurasian Studies Program are also eligible to apply.

Application

Please take the time to fill out the following application form clearly and concisely. Applications are due Friday, March 2, 2018 by 5:00 p.m. at the address below. The following materials must accompany the application form.

- A copy of your Pitt academic record (an unofficial copy or print out from PeopleSoft is fine). If you are a transfer student who has not completed any coursework here at Pitt yet, then please also enclose a transcript from your other school.
- A two page or so (typed, double-spaced) statement indicating the following: your personal, academic, and/or professional interest in Germany; how you learned German if not through formal courses, and how you plan to use German after graduation. Also, please discuss how the study abroad program (or internship or research experience) will enhance your academic and/or pre-professional planning and what you hope to gain from being abroad.
