What is Europe Day?

On May 9th of each year, the European Union celebrates Europe Day. This holiday marks the anniversary of the ‘Schuman Declaration,’ which was issued in the aftermath of World War II by Robert Schuman, a French diplomat at the time. The Declaration called for a united and peaceful Europe. During his speech, Schuman proposed a plan to end war between European nations by pooling coal and steel production, thus managing the natural resources of war. The European Coal and Steel Treaty laid the groundwork for what is known today as the European Union.

About the Contest

Through participation in the EuroFest Contest, students will engage in an in-depth study of European cultures, people, history, as well as contemporary issues that are relevant to both the United States and European Union. This experience will help students develop research skills and gain expertise on a topic of their interest related to an annual theme. Any of the following submission formats are possible: paper, poster, art portfolio, documentary, podcast, or website.

Contest Dates

Submissions are due by Friday, March 17, 2017. Decisions will be announced by Friday, March 24, 2017. Check the European Studies Center’s website at www.ucis.pitt.edu/esc for the link to the submission form, which will open on Monday, January 9, 2017.

The second annual Euroburgh Festival will be held on Saturday, April 8, 2017 on the University of Pittsburgh’s campus. During the festival, participants’ submissions will be on display for the public to view and awards will be given out to the top two projects for division (K-2; 3-5; 6-8; 9-12).

Contest Winners

Contest winners will be selected for each division and announced on the main stage at the annual Euroburgh Festival in April held on the University of Pittsburgh’s campus. Winners’ projects will be submitted to the Delegation of the European Union to the United States in Washington D.C. where they will be prominently displayed.
Contest Rules

Individual and Group Submissions

An individual paper, poster, art portfolio, documentary, podcast, or website may be the work of one participant. A group documentary, podcast, or website may be the work of two to four participants. All students in a group entry must demonstrate a shared contribution to the research and final product being submitted. Groups cannot submit a paper, poster, or art portfolio project. Papers, posters, and art portfolios must be submitted by an individual student to be accepted.

Plagiarism

Participants must acknowledge and cite all sources used in their submissions. Using an author’s word for word ideas without quotations and citations, paraphrasing ideas without a citation, including images and designs not labeled for noncommercial reuse, or using music without proper credit is unacceptable and will result in the disqualification of students’ projects.
