French Immersion Summer Institute Homestays

The American Association of Teachers of French (AATF), as well as the Centre Francophone de Pittsburgh (CFP) have organized a limited number of homestays with native speakers or French teachers for French Immersion participants. The home-stays will be in the Pittsburgh area, and you will need a car to get back and forth to campus (parking is free). The home-stay family would provide you with:

*A bedroom (Sunday, July 31st – Thursday, August 4th housing; departure on August 5th)

* Dinner with the home stay family on Sunday, July 31st

The fee for homestay housing is $50.00 per night or $250.00 total paid directly to the homestay family.

Note: regarding dinner for the other evenings, AATF and CFP will be organizing rendezvous to various restaurants in the Pittsburgh area. The teachers will be paying for these dinner excursions.

If you are interested in a home stay experience, please contact Linda Twedt, President of AATF – Western Pennsylvania: poitiers75@msn.com. The assignment of a homestay will be first come, first serve.

French Immersion Summer Institute Hotel Accommodations

The European Studies Center has compiled a list of nearby hotels where you can reserve a hotel room for the French Immersion Summer Institute if you are traveling a distance to participate in the weeklong program. Although the Center cannot fund your stay, we have been able to secure university rates to reduce your out-of-pocket costs.
