Frick Art & Historical Center

Exhibition "Millet to Matisse"

Monet, Renoir, Cassatt, Cézanne, van Gogh, and Picasso are among the artists represented in this extraordinary exhibition drawn from the distinguished collection of the Kelvingrove Art Gallery in Scotland (one of the institutions that constitute the Glasgow Museums). Featuring 64 works from the Impressionist, Post-Impressionist and Modern periods, "Millet to Matisse" offers both a comprehensive view of developments in French painting of the era and a glimpse into the social history of the period in which the paintings were collected. This exhibition is organized by the American Federation of Arts and the Glasgow Museums.

Announcements

Learn a West European Language this summer!

French, German, Italian, and Spanish are available this summer during both the first six-week (May 12 - June 21) and second 6-week (June 23 - August 2) sessions at the University of Pittsburgh. Please contact the departments or CAS for more information. A complete listing of summer courses at Pitt is available at http://www.pitt.edu/~registrar/tsch_sum/tschindx.htm.

Please note: Due to budgetary constraints, the German department will no longer offer GER 0021 and GER 0022 (German Reading 1 and 2) during the regular academic year. The summer program will be the only opportunity for graduate students to fulfill the language-reading requirement in German.
