Frick Art & Historical Center

Exhibition “Millet to Matisse”

Monet, Renoir, Cassatt, Cézanne, van Gogh, and Picasso are among the artists represented in this extraordinary exhibition drawn from the distinguished collection of the Kelvingrove Art Gallery in Scotland (one of the institutions that constitute the Glasgow Museums). Featuring 64 works from the Impressionist, Post-Impressionist and Modern periods, Millet to Matisse offers both a comprehensive view of developments in French painting of the era and a glimpse into the social history of the period in which the paintings were collected. This exhibition is organized by the American Federation of Arts and Glasgow Museums.
