CALL FOR PAPERS

2nd Annual Graduate Student Conference on the European Union

*The Challenge for Europe:
Governance, Economics and Multiculturalism*

Saturday, October 21, 2006
University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA

The European Union is currently facing many challenges that affect its citizens, institutions and policy-making capability. This conference wishes to highlight graduate student research that addresses some of these broad challenges. The Organizing Committee of the 2nd Annual Graduate Student Conference on the European Union welcomes papers addressing the theme of the conference. We seek submissions from all disciplines on topics including, but not limited to, European Union politics, economics and institutions; and policies including enlargement, immigration, development, trade, transatlantic relations and foreign policy more generally.

Deadline for Abstract Submission: September 1, 2006

Abstracts should be 250-300 words in length and will be accepted only via email as a Word document or PDF attachment; please include a current CV with your submission. Only authors enrolled in a degree granting graduate or professional program are eligible to participate.

Please submit abstracts and any inquiries to: EUconf@pitt.edu.
