Personal Statement
On page four of this application, write a narrative describing yourself as an individual. It should deal with your personal history; influences on your career choice; the educational, cultural, and other opportunities you have enjoyed; and the ways in which these experiences have affected your life goals. Also include your special interests, abilities, career plans, and life goals. Please limit this statement to 500 words in English, and forward this statement as part of your application.

Statement of Proposed Fellowship Activities
On page five of this application, please describe your activity goals for the Fellowship. For instance, you might wish to identify the types of classes in which you'd like to participate, the kinds of internships you'd want to pursue, as well as other professional and non-professional opportunities you'd seek while in the United States. Please explain how you would use the fellowship year to advance your long-term career goals, strengthen your professional leadership abilities, and bring about more positive development in your country. Please limit this statement to 500 words in English, and forward this statement as part of your application.

Applicant's name:

Country of citizenship:

English Language Report

The English Language Report form (available on our Web site) must be completed by a professional English language teacher (preferably by a college or university faculty member or an appropriate member of the United States Embassy). The Report must be signed and submitted electronically or mailed to the fellowship office

Letters of Reference

For your application to be complete, three original letters of reference must be submitted. Each must be hand-signed, and must be submitted by each professional reference electronically or by mail to the fellowship office.

* A suggestion for those writing recommendations: The selection committee is especially interested in assessments of the candidate's abilities, achievements, promise for future leadership in his or her career, and possible contributions the candidate might make to the well-being of the country.

Please list information for the three persons you have asked to mail letters of reference for your application:

Reference's full name	Reference's title	Reference's mailing address	Reference's phone number

IMPORTANT: All components of the application package must be received by the fellowship office by our EXTENDED DEADLINE APRIL 15, 2010. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.

The fellowship office must receive all of the following materials in order for your application to be considered complete:

1. Application, including Personal Statement and Statement of Proposed Fellowship Activities (submitted electronically or mailed)
2. English Language Report (completed and hand-signed by a professional English language teacher, submitted electronically or mailed)
3. Three letters of reference (each original letter must be hand-signed submitted electronically or mailed)

No other information is required.

I hereby confirm that the information provided in this application is truthful, complete, and up-to-date. I understand that the H.J. Heinz Company Foundation Fellowship is a non-degree fellowship, and that courses taken at the University of Pittsburgh or elsewhere as part of the fellowship will not earn credit towards any academic degree, neither during the Fellowship nor after the completion of the fellowship.
