

CHINESE ARCHIVE COLLECTION AND PROJECT INITIATIVE

This one hour session consists of two parts. First, East Asian Librarian HAIHUI ZHANG will introduce Chinese archival materials (manuscripts, photos, correspondences, certificates, etc.) collected by the East Asian Library (EAL) at the University of Pittsburgh Library System and explore opportunities for students' field studies and experiential practice on primary sources under professional guidance. Then, Haihui and her student assistants will present an ongoing project titled Contemporary Chinese Village Gazetteer Data (CCVG Data) initiated by the EAL, including data structure, data dictionary, downloading instructions, current stage, and the final goal.
