

CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL
LEGAL EDUCATION

*The University of Pittsburgh School of Law Center for International Legal Education (CILE) and
The Asian Studies Center (ASC)
are proud to co-sponsor*

DEALS AND DISPUTES: China, Hong Kong, and Commercial Law

May 18-20, 2021

REGISTER HERE

VIEW EVENT PROGRAM

Join us for a virtual, three-day event that will consider the structure, reach, and impact of China's Belt & Road Initiative and its implications for commercial relations, dispute resolution, and the future of legal developments in Asia. This event will feature a series of keynote speakers and expert panels that will explore China's evolving role in the field of commercial law.

This conference is free and open to the public. Please direct any questions to cile@pitt.edu.

CLE Credit: This program has been approved by the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for seven (7) hours of substantive credit. There is a $105 fee for processing CLE credit for this event.

