

Call for Applications!
2020 Faculty Professional Development Grant

Sponsored by the Center for Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies, University of Pittsburgh, with funding from the Title VI National Resource Center program of the U.S. Department of Education

Instructions: REEES invites applications for the 2020 Pitt Study Abroad Program Competing Perspectives on Global Energy: From Western Pennsylvania to Eastern Europe. Full-time or part-time faculty members from U.S. community colleges and MSIs may use this form to request up to $3,000 to support participation in this professional development opportunity in order to advance internationalization of their campuses and curricula. If you are interested in a different opportunity and wish to inquire about funding eligibility, please contact Susan Dawkins, Engagement Coordinator, at sad96@pitt.edu.

Selected participants are expected to attend all activities organized as a part of the program. As a requirement of the grant, participants will submit a lesson plan or syllabus module in August that shows how they will incorporate what they learned into their classroom.

Please complete the Applicant Information section and submit this form to Susan Dawkins at sad96@pitt.edu by Friday, January 20, 2020. You will be notified of the outcome of your application by February 15, 2020.

Applicant Information

Name _____

Email _____

Mailing Address _____

Institution _____

Position Title/Department _____

Amount of Funding Requested _____

Amount of Funding Available from Your Home Institution _____

In no more than 500 words, please answer the following questions below:

- How does participation in the Global Energy program intersect with your professional development goals and strategic priorities at your institution?
- What program or curriculum development project (i.e. lecture series, workshops, new/revised syllabi) do you propose to implement in order to advance internationalization at your institution? The final project will be decided in consultation with the sponsoring center.