| | Session: 6W1 | TTh | 6:00:00 PM to 9:15:00 PM CL 332 | |

This course introduces students to Russian fairy tales, a fascinating and productive genre of folklore that reveals a great deal about Russian traditions and modes of thought. Taking a psychological approach to the materials, the course examines not only the tales, but also the beliefs informing the magic world of these narratives. Since the humans, spirits, and beasts populating this world are richly portrayed in Russian art, a significant component of the course will consist of visual and audio representations of figures and scenes from fairy tales. We shall examine slides of posters, paintings, book illustrations, postcards, etc., and shall listen to music based on characters, situations, and narratives drawn from the tales (e.g., extracts from Glinka, Rimsky-Korsakov, Chaikovsky, and Mussorgsky).

This is a beginning course in Ukrainian language and is offered in the summer only as part of the Summer Intensive East European Language Program. The 2009 Summer Language Institute will take place on the Pitt campus during the period: June 08 through July 17, 2009 (6 weeks). Applications accepted on a rolling basis; space is limited. Scholarship aid is available; all participants pay in-state tuition. The Summer East European Language Institute, attracting students from all over the United States and Canada, will consist of intensive, five-hours-a-day instruction in a carefully maintained environment, allowing students to make the greatest possible progress in the language during the time available. Cultural and social activities, including lectures, discussion groups, and performances will supplement classroom learning.
