

THURSDAY-FRIDAY, MARCH 16-17, 2017

Pittsburgh Athletic Association | 4215 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh

A DIVERSITY OF

EUROPEAN

IDENTITIES

From the Subnational to the Supranational

A two-day conference bringing together scholars from across sub-fields to discuss the development, transformation, transmission, expression, and politicization of identity in the European context.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

Charles Forsdick

James Barrow Professor of French, University of Liverpool

“From the National to the Transnational: Reconfiguring Modern Languages”

Thursday, March 16th 4:00-5:30pm (reception to follow)

Matthew Goodwin

Professor of Politics and International Relations, University of Kent

“Voting for Brexit and the Radical Right - Examining New Data in the United Kingdom”

Friday, March 17th 4:00-5:30pm (reception to follow)

For a detailed schedule of the panels and to register for the conference, go to www.ucis.pitt.edu/esc.

SPONSORED BY:

University of Pittsburgh

Office of the Provost
Dietrich School of Arts & Sciences
University Center for International Studies
Department of Political Science
Department of History
Center for Russian and East European Studies
Department of French & Italian
Languages and Literatures
Department of German
University Honors College
Humanities Center
Cultural Studies Program
The Graduate School for Public and International Affairs

European Union Studies Association

This event funded in part by a grant from the European Union and from the U.S. Department of Education.