

EUROPEAN STUDIES CENTER
VIRTUAL BRIEFING

EuroForum:
City Networks and the Pittsburgh Glasgow
Project

Faced with a number of complex challenges on a global scale, Pittsburgh city officials have cultivated networks of cities around the world to exchange best practices and experiences in the pursuit of policy-making that works. What opportunities do such networks open up for local businesses and industry? What are cities like Pittsburgh and Glasgow learning from each other?

Join us for a Virtual Briefing about the Pittsburgh-Glasgow Project that is promoting just cities across the Atlantic. Log in from your home or office, or join us in person at downtown or Oakland.

PRESENTERS:

Grant Ervin

Chief Resilience Officer, City of Pittsburgh

Des McNulty

Vice-Chair, Glasgow Commission on Economic Growth

Lee Haller

Director, Department of Innovation & Performance, City of Pittsburgh

April 24, 2018 from 12:00 - 1:30 p.m. EDT

For more information and to register for this FREE virtual briefing:

<http://virtualbriefing.eventbrite.com/?s=83955634>

PittUCIS

University Center for International Studies

