In this course, students will study the current cultural, political, social, and economic situation in Germany within its global context. By concentrating on current conditions and changes of public consciousness, issues important to German speakers are debated: from the rise of fascism, racism, and anti-Semitism to the integration of refugees. For more information see the above mentioned detailed course description. Materials include articles from journals and newspapers, documentaries, slides, and contemporary works of literature. All materials are in English and will cover key political, social, economic, and cultural developments in contemporary Germany such as: Germany's leading role in the EU; its relationship to the United States; its growing multi-ethnicity; the integration of refugees; the rise of an extreme right-wing political party; efforts to learn from German history, in particular the Holocaust; civic movements to stop hate-crimes, racism, and anti-Semitism; 2. Modern and postmodern architecture and city planning; 3. Innovative artists from Anselm Kiefer to street artists; 4. Composers, musicians, political singers, rock bands such as 'Die Toten Hosen'; 5. Authors from different countries who write in German i.e. Yoko Tawada from Japan and Rafik Shami from Syria; 6. Political filmmakers (Volker Schlöndorff, Margarethe von Trotta, Werner Herzog, Michael Verhoeven); 7. Scientific and technological achievements and developments; 8. German fashion and German Fashion Kings such as Karl Lagerfeld; 9. Last but not least, the political and cultural role of soccer in contemporary Germany. GER 1522 will be taught in English. It fulfills the Foreign Culture (International/Regional) requirement. It also counts towards the Western European Studies certificate. This course examines German history from World War I to the present, with a special focus on the Cold War era. Students will learn to distinguish between political, social, economic and cultural trends that were specific to Germany from those that were common throughout Europe and beyond. Topics include the economic and political crises of the interwar years and the establishment of the Nazi dictatorship, WWII as turning point of European and global history, Germany's Cold War divisions and the reunification of 1990, as well as European integration as the game-changing innovation of the postwar years. There will be a focus on everyday life, film and music.
