Course Description

In this final ‘capstone’ course of the European Union Studies Certificate, we will examine both politics and policies in the EU. We will focus on the relationship between voters, public opinion, parties, and policies in the EU. We will examine some of the major issues facing the European Union in the 21st century: changing demographics, identity, challenges to the EU from the right and left, Euroskepticism, and Brexit. Each student will spend the semester researching a topic of his/her choosing related to the EU/Europe.

Reading Materials

The majority of readings are available on CourseWeb. If students would like a reading packet, we can arrange this on the first day of class. In addition, you are required to purchase the following book, which we will read the week before and after spring break. Reasonably priced new and used copies are available on-line.

I would also strongly encourage you to stay on top of current events in Europe over the course of the semester. There are many great on-line resources for European/EU news, including: the New York Times—www.nyt.com, Economist—www.economist.com, BBC—www.bbc.co.uk, Der Spiegel—www.spiegel.de/international; Al Jazeera—www.aljazeera.com. Feel free to check out non-English language sources as well. Some of these may have a limited number of free articles you can browse from the website, but there are student subscriptions and unlimited access through the library for most. I’d also suggest becoming a regular NPR listener. Our local station is WESA, 90.5 FM—www.wesa.fm/www.npr.org.
Evaluation

Your grade in this course will be comprised of the following. Grades will be calculated on a scale of A-F, broken down as follows:

- 97-100=A+
- 87-89=B+
- 77-79=C+
- 67-69=D+
- 59 and below=F

- 94-96=A
- 84-86=B
- 74-76=C
- 64-66=D

Midterm Exam: 20%
Final Take Home Exam: 25%
Paper and Presentation: 35%
Participation: 10%
Discussion Leader: 10%

*All work will be weighted according to the break-down above. Your final grade will thus be out of 100 possible points.

1) Exams. We will have two exams in this course. The midterm will be in-class on Feb. 23rd. The final exam will be a take home, handed out the last of class, and due on April 24th @ 4pm. The midterm is 20% of your grade; the final is 25% of your grade.

2) Paper and Presentation. Each student will write a 10-12 pg. research paper (roughly 2500-3000 words, exclusive of abstract, title page, and bibliography) on a topic of your choice related to Europe/European Union. Students must meet with Prof. Spoon to discuss research topics. Research proposals are due on Feb. 9th. Paper drafts are due on April 6th. Please bring two copies of your drafts to class. We will then have a workshop in class on April 11th where each student will provide feedback on another students’ paper. Final papers are due on April 18th. On this day, each student will also prepare a presentation of his/her paper using presentation software, such as PowerPoint. The paper and presentation combined are 35% of your final grade; the presentation is 10% of this.

3) Discussion Leader. On the first day, each student will sign up for two classes to lead the discussion. On your assigned day, please circulate about 5 questions by 7pm on Monday via CourseWeb (Discussion Board) to the class. These questions are meant to jump start the discussion and highlight the main themes of the week’s readings. All students must bring a copy of the questions to class (either on an electronic device or a hard copy). Your grade will be based on the quality of questions and how well you are able to facilitate discussion. This will be 10% of your final grade.

4) Participation. You are required to come to class prepared having read the assigned readings. Participation will be 10% of your final grade.
Class Policies

Class Expectations. This is a very small class, so please come to class having read the material and prepared to participate. Make sure to look at the discussion questions before class. For weeks that there is not a student discussion leader, I will post a few questions before class. There will be lots of opportunities to engage with the material and with each other. You may use your laptop or other device to take notes, but if you are using it for something other than taking notes (and distracting other students), I may not allow you to continue using it. Please turn your phone off while you are in class and do not text, check Facebook, Twitter, or look up information that is not relevant to class. If you plan to come to class to do something else, I suggest that you not come. Please do the readings before class on Tuesday (unless otherwise instructed) and make sure to bring them with you to class (either in hard copy or on an electronic device).

Attendance. I will take attendance each time we meet within the first 10 minutes. Should you arrive after 10 minutes, this will be counted as an absence. You are allowed three absences from during the semester. You do not need to tell me why you will be absent or bring any sort of document to justify your absence. Each additional absence will result in a 2% deduction from your Participation grade. If there is a circumstance in which you will be absent more than twice (e.g. Pitt team travel) please discuss this with me in advance. In order to have any additional absence excused, you will need to provide documentation.

Email. Please make sure you check your Pitt email regularly. If you do not use your Pitt account, make sure you link your Pitt account to whichever email address you do use. I will send email messages to the class periodically and will use your official Pitt email address. If you want to contact me, please use my Pitt addresses above and do not email us through CourseWeb.

CourseWeb. All materials handed out in class will be posted here. We will also post announcements, links, graphs/tables shown in class, and other useful information. So, check CourseWeb often!

Extensions and Alternate Dates. In general, I will not allow extensions on assignments or alternate exam dates. However, should you find yourself in a situation where you will not be able to turn an assignment in on-time or be present for an exam, please discuss this with your me as soon as you can, and not the day the assignment is due or the day of the exam or afterwards.

Late Policy. A late assignment will be penalized 1/3 of a letter grade for each day it is late. After 1 week, it will no longer be accepted.

Grade Appeals. Should you want to appeal a grade you’ve received, it must be in writing. You will need to explain why you believe you deserve a grade that is different than the one you received. The written appeal should be turned in to me and I will then schedule a time to meet with you to discuss your appeal.
Academic Integrity. Students in this course are expected to comply with the University of Pittsburgh’s Policy on Academic Integrity. Cheating, plagiarism, or other acts of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Any student suspected of violating this obligation for any reason during the semester will be required to participate in the procedural process, initiated by the instructor, as outlined in the University Guidelines on Academic Integrity. More information and the complete policy can be found at http://www.provost.pitt.edu/info/ai1.html.

Accommodations. If you have a disability for which you are or may be requesting an accommodation, you are encouraged to contact both me and the Office of Disability Resources and Services (DRS), 140 William Pitt Union, (412-648-7890, 412-228-5347 for P3 ASL users), drsrecp@pittedu, as early as possible in the term. DRS will verify your disability and determine reasonable accommodations for this course. For more information, please see https://www.studentaffairs.pitt.edu/drs/.

Classroom Recording. To ensure free and open discussion of ideas, students may not record classroom lectures, discussion and/or activities without the advance permission of the instructor. Any such recording properly approved in advance can be used solely for the student’s own private use.
