

Is Europe Unlimited?

EU enlargement and the evolving purpose of the union

April 6, 2022

12:30 - 2:00 pm | 3911 WWPH
**campus community members only*

Professor
Daniel Thomas

Professor of International Relations University of Leiden

Professor Daniel Thomas (University of Leiden) joins Pitt Professor Gregor Thum (History) for a discussion of his recent work entitled "The Limits of Europe: Membership Norms and the Contestation of Regional Integration" and how it outlines the potential expansion of the European Union and what it means to be a member of Europe.

This is a part of the Creating Europe Speaker Series.

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

The Creating Europe Speaker Series is a two-year project funded by a Jean Monnet Project grant from the European Commission and part of a larger initiative to reimagine European Studies at the University of Pittsburgh. The series will explore ideas of Europe from Late Antiquity to the contemporary period and consider ways in which processes of "integration" and "disintegration" have been at work in Europe for much of its history.

REGISTER

Note: As of March 28, Masks are optional in Pitt buildings and classrooms

CO-SPONSORS:
Department of History
European Studies Center

University Center for International Studies

University of Pittsburgh®