

CERTIFICATE IN EUROPEAN UNION STUDIES

Approved Courses for Spring 2021

To complete the certificate, a student must take 18 credits of EU Studies courses and up to 16 credits in an approved foreign language.

Undergraduate Certificate

1. European Union Studies (Content) Courses

To complete the certificate, a student must complete six EU studies courses from at least three different departments. These courses will include:

- One course on the historical foundation of the EU (see approved course list)
- PS 1317 Politics of the EU
- PS 1381 – Writing Capstone in EU Studies
- Three courses on the EU or with significant EU content (see approved course list)

2. Language Courses

Students must complete the fourth semester of an official European Union language (excluding English) or the national language of a candidate country to the EU. Acceptable languages that are currently available at Pitt through the fourth semester include: Spanish, German, French, Italian, Swedish, Modern Greek, Portuguese, Hungarian, Polish, and Slovak. Students may request placement tests through the language departments.
