

Sponsorship Levels

The European Studies Center is seeking sponsors for the 4th annual EuroFest – scheduled for Sunday, August 25, 2019. The festival will be a celebration of European culture, cuisine, and heritage. Local restaurants and artisans will create a dynamic marketplace while cultural performances of regional and ethnic song and dance are presented on the main stage. Artistic demonstrations and children’s activities will take place throughout the day.

If you are interested in becoming a sponsor please contact the European Studies Center at 412-648-7405 or irm24@pitt.edu.

$2,500 – Presenting sponsor

- Name and logo recognition on main stage banner for the duration of the Europe Day Festival
- Name and logo recognition on Festival website and event signage
- Special invitation to a lunch or reception for a Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence distinguished visitor of your choosing (Jean Monnet Center of Excellence scholar, EU Prize for Literature winning author, etc.)
- Opportunity to give remarks on the main stage
- Feature article in the European Studies Center’s e-newsletter with a circulation of over 1,000 readers
- Premier booth space at Festival

$1,000 – Major Sponsor

- Name and logo recognition on Festival website and event signage
- Special invitation to a lunch or reception for a Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence distinguished visitor of your choosing (Jean Monnet Center of Excellence scholar, EU Prize for Literature winning author, etc.)
- Opportunity to give remarks on the main stage
- Premier booth space at Festival

$500 – Supporting Sponsor

- Name and logo recognition on Festival website and event signage
- Special invitation to a lunch or reception for a Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence distinguished visitor of your choosing (Jean Monnet Center of Excellence scholar, EU Prize for Literature winning author, etc.)
- Booth space at Festival

$250 – Contributing Sponsor

- Name and logo recognition on Festival website and event signage
- Booth space at Festival