

Some suggested readings for anyone who was interested in delving further into the material covered in the film The Silence of Others (dir: Carracedo and Bahar, 2018)

A special thanks to Maria Skłodowska Curie Global Fellow, Cristina Blanco-Sio Lopez, for putting together this list and participating in our roundtable after the film viewing.

Resources (in English)

1. Converging Pathways: Spain and the European Integration Process, Book, Cristina Blanco-Sío Lopez and Susana Muñoz
2. The Enduring Myths around Spain's Historical Memory Law, News Article, Natalia Junquera
3. The Politics of History and Memory in Democratic Spain, Journal Article, Carolyn P. Boyd
4. Knowing and Acknowledging Spain's Dark Civil War Past, Journal Article, Peter Anderson
5. Confronting Silence and Memory in Contemporary Spain: The Grandchildren's Perspective, Book Chapter, Natalia Sanjuán Bornay

Bibliografía (en Español)

1. La Comunidad Europea y la transición española \(1975-1977\), Capítulo, Fernando Guirao y Víctor Gavin
2. La odisea de la memoria, Libro, Josefina Cuesta
3. Itinerarios Cruzados: España y el proceso de construcción europea, Libro, Cristina Blanco-Sío Lopez and Susana Muñoz
4. La justicia de transición en España. De la amnistía a la memoria histórica, Libro, Alicia Gil
5. Todos Los Nombres, Sitio Web, Confederación General del Trabajo de Andalucía (CGT.A)