

BE PART OF THE STORY: KEEPING PITTSBURGH'S TRADITIONS ALIVE

Tuesday, February 24, 2026 | 3 p.m

Duquesne University Power Center Ballroom

A lively conversation capped off with a Pittsburgh-style food fest!

Pittsburgh has long been a “melting pot” city. The people who powered the steel mills also filled the city with music, food, dance, and rich traditions.

Celebrate the city's heritage – and keep those traditions alive!

- Catch the energy of Greek dance performers
- Watch ethnic craft traditions come to life
- Discover Pittsburgh's legacy as a jazz capital
- Learn about, and snack on, iconic Pittsburgh foods

Ken Gormley (Moderator)
*President
Duquesne University*

Rick Sebak
*Producer and Writer
WQED*

Kati Csoman
*Director
University of Pittsburgh Nationality
Rooms*

Ron Baraff
*Director of Historic Resources
Rivers of Steel*

Terri Baltimore
*Community Tour Guide and Storyteller
Hill District*

*Brought to you by the
Albert C. Labriola
Endowed Fund*

Registration appreciated but not required
duq.edu/Labriola