

Remote Global-Mini Programs

Pitt Study Abroad is working with CAPA: The Global Education Network to offer some of our most popular globally-focused programming in a remote format.

Global academic and pre-professional development from anywhere.

Study topics like healthcare in a global context, human rights and equity, marketing, and more. Courses are taught by faculty from around the world, giving you a unique, global perspective.

Courses can pair with guaranteed remote internships and service-learning projects.
