

Pittsburgh Romanian Studies
Presents

Roland Clark, ABD
Department of History, University of Pittsburgh

“O țară sfântă ca soarele de pe cer”:
(A blessed country like the sun in the sky)
Researching Fascism in Romania

Date: Friday 21 October 2011

Time: 4 PM

Place: History Dept. Lounge, 3703 Posvar Hall

Roland Clark has been in Romania for the last year and a half researching his dissertation entitled “The Legion of the Archangel Michael: Building a Fascist Community in Interwar Romania.” He has published several articles on the topic. His research interests span Cultural Studies; gender, ethnicity, race and religion; and twentieth century Eastern Europe. For more information, please contact Roland at rdc17@pitt.edu