

European Cultural Dis/Union Workshop

February 21—22, 2014

Pittsburgh Athletic Club

Patrician Crown Mural Room

Globalization and transnationalism constitute forces that are as much cultural as economic and political. Moreover, their combined impact affects people and countries differentially. Regions and areas have distinct profiles that are affected by movement toward union, such as the European Union. This conference will explore the dynamics of cultural unification in the EU area from a variety of perspectives.

more information: www.ucis.pitt.edu/euce inquiries: kal68@pitt.edu

Sponsored by:

European Union Center of Excellence/ European Studies Center, Humanities Center, Department of German, the Program in Women's Studies, and the Film Studies Program

