“Vilnius Lessons: Reflections on the First Lithuanian EU Presidency”

Zygmantas Pavilionis

Ambassador of the Republic of Lithuania

January 8, 2014
Posvar Hall Room 4217
3:30 – 5:00 PM

Ambassador Pavilionis visits the Center to reflect on the Lithuanian Presidency of the Council of the European Union - the first time the Presidency has been held by a state that emerged from the USSR--and to share his ideas about the future of the EU and Lithuania's relationship with its fellow EU member states. Refreshments will be served.

This event is being sponsored by the European Union Center of Excellence, the European Studies Center, and the Center for Russian and East European Studies
