"THE REAL PRICE OF CHEAP FOOD"

MALIN OLOFSSON

Transatlantic Media Fellow &
Investigative Reporter for Sveriges Radio, Sweden's National Radio Network

Thursday, September 12

12 p.m.

4217 Posvar Hall

Ms. Malin Olofsson, a Transatlantic Media Fellow of the Center for Strategic & International Studies, and a Reporter for Sveriges Radio, Sweden's National Radio Network, brings her expertise on the environment, climate change, sustainability, and the food debate to Pitt to discuss her work as an environmental investigative journalist on the problems with industrial food production. Offering a human rights and environmental perspective, Ms. Olofsson has won numerous national awards, most recently "The Great Journalism Prize of Sweden – 2011." She was also listed in 2011 as one of the 100 most important people in Sweden in the discussion of environmental issues and the food debate.

This event has been funded in part by the European Union
