TEACHING EAST ASIA FOUNDATIONAL SUMMER SEMINAR: ART & LITERATURE

ENROLL NOW

In this free, in-person, and content-rich seminar for K-12 educators, you will learn about, engage with, and experience aspects of Chinese, Japanese, and Korean art, literature, and history. Those who teach Art (studio and history), World Literature or Culture, AP Art or Literature, and/or English may find this year's themes especially appealing but we also encourage teachers of History, Social Studies, Languages, Librarians, and more to apply. The seminar will provide East Asia-specific content and historical background as well as hands-on art projects, analysis of literary works, classroom applications, and recommended resources.

BENEFITS

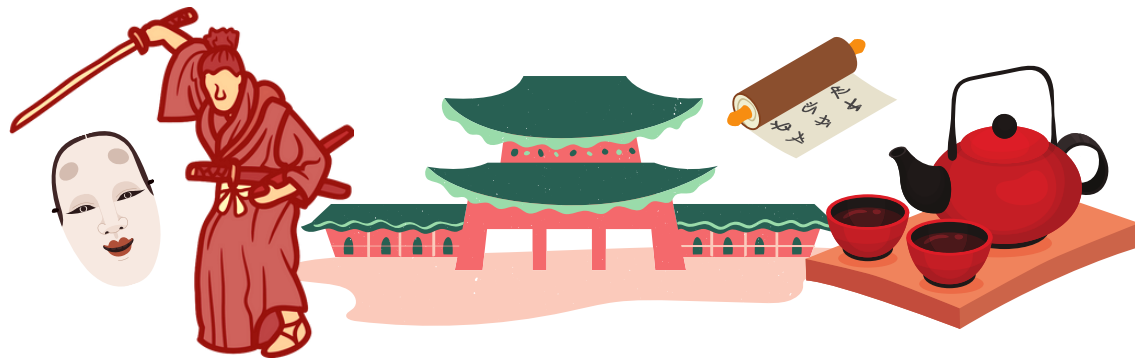

All participants who complete the requirements of the program will receive a $300 stipend, $250 worth of free teaching resources, option for 30 SCECH hours (pending approval), and qualify as an alum for future NCTA short courses and study tours. We have limited funding to support lodging for participants who live more than 30 miles away from MSU East Lansing campus.

Kick-off Event: June 13 (Tue)
6:00 to 8:30 p.m. EST

Full Week Seminar: August 7 (Mon) to August 11 (Fri)
9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. EST (lunch included on most days)

Six-Hour Follow-up Session in the Fall
(dates to be determined)

MEETING THE STANDARDS

This seminar will provide you with the knowledge and resources to implement East Asia into your curriculum in keeping with the state's academic standards. No previous background or experience is assumed. Teams of teachers as well as teachers in schools with NCTA alumni are strongly encouraged to apply.

LOCATION

MSU International Center, 427 N. Shaw Lane, East Lansing, MI (free parking provided)
