

Teaching Modern East Asia

Summer Foundational Seminar for K-12 Educators

July 29—August 2, 2024

APPLY NOW! This free, in-person seminar will introduce the modern histories and cultures of CHINA, JAPAN, and KOREA, helping you to better understand East Asia and discover innovative ways to introduce it to your students. Teachers of Geography, History, Social Studies, World Literature, Current Events, International Relations, Media, Art, Asian Languages, or any other subject involving Asia are encouraged to apply. Sessions will include hands-on activities and discussions of pedagogy, where to find resources, and more. Apply online by April 13th:

https://msu.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_5pQZMURJex2zapU

SEMINAR DATES: July 29 (Mon) to Aug 2 (Fri), 9:00 a.m. to 3:50 p.m. with an evening orientation session on May 22 (Wednesday) and one three-hour follow-up session in the fall (date t.b.d.)

LOCATION: Michigan State University in East Lansing.

Spend a week of your summer on our beautiful, green campus! We have funds to subsidize residence for teachers coming from more than 50 miles away (including out of state). Lunch provided most days.

BENEFITS: for those attending all sessions and completing all requirements, you will receive:

- $300 stipend and certificate of completion,
- $230 worth of books and teaching materials,
- 30 SCECH hours (for Michigan teachers),
- status as a National Consortium for Teaching About Asia (NCTA) alum.

QUESTIONS? Contact us: Seminar Leader Dr. Ethan Segal (segale@msu.edu) and/or Outreach Coordinator Dr. Jiahang Li (jiahang@msu.edu)

WE GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGE: The 2024 Summer Seminar at Michigan State University is possible due to the generous support of the Freeman Foundation, the MSU Asian Studies Center, and the University Center for International Studies and the National Consortium for Teaching about Asia at the University of Pittsburgh.

<https://asia.isp.msu.edu>

www.ucis.pitt.edu/ncta

