

Michigan State University presents

Teaching Traditional East Asia

NCTA Summer Seminar for K-12 Educators
July 28 to August 1, 2025

APPLY NOW! This free, in-person seminar will introduce the histories and cultures of CHINA, JAPAN, and KOREA, helping you to better understand East Asia and discover innovative ways to introduce it to your students. Teachers of Geography, History, Social Studies, World Literature, Media, Art, Asian Languages, or any other subject involving Asia are encouraged to apply. Sessions will include hands-on activities and discussions of pedagogy, where to find resources, and more. Apply online by March 25th:

https://msu.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_0DN3a0hw7hXosXI

SEMINAR DATES: July 28 (Mon) to Aug 1 (Fri), 9 am to 4 pm with an evening orientation session on June 16 (Monday) and a half-day follow-up session in the fall (date t.b.d.)

LOCATION: Michigan State University in East Lansing. Spend a week of your summer on our beautiful, green campus! We have funds to subsidize residence for teachers coming from more than 50 miles away (including out of state). Lunches provided.

BENEFITS: for those attending all sessions and completing all requirements, you will receive:

- $300 stipend and certificate of completion,
- $230 worth of books and teaching materials,
- 30 SCECH hours (for Michigan teachers),
- National Consortium for Teaching About Asia (NCTA) alumni status.

QUESTIONS? Contact us: Seminar Leader Dr. Ethan Segal (segale@msu.edu) or Outreach Coordinator Dr. Jiahang Li (jiahang@msu.edu)

WE GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGE: The 2025 Summer Seminar at Michigan State University is possible due to the generous support of the Freeman Foundation, the MSU Asian Studies Center, and the University Center for International Studies and the National Consortium for Teaching about Asia at the University of Pittsburgh.

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Asian Studies Center
International Studies & Programs

<https://asia.isp.msu.edu>

www.ucis.pitt.edu/ncta